Mt. Coghill Vineyard Madam Pommy Single Vineyard Brut 2022
Ballarat | Sparkling

MADAM POMMY PINOT CHARD BRUT

There is a serious intensity of flavour here. It's all apple, lemon, blackcurrent bud and musk, and while it still has a lot up its sleeve in terms of developed complexity, its quality even now, in its youth, is clear. This is an excellent wine from a producer on the rise.

Mt. Coghill Vineyard Divine Miss A 2022
Ballarat | Sparkling

THE DIVINE MISS A SPARKLING ROSE

There is an intensity of flavour here that is arresting, in a good way. This is a sparkling wine that makes you sit up and take notice. Strawberry, red cherry, brine and bread characters talk an exuberant, confident game. The finish is they dry, grippy and good.

Mt. Coghill Vineyard Pinot Noir 2022
Ballarat

2022 PINOT NOIR & 2023 DZIA DZIAPINOT NOIR

2022 This is a beautifully flavoured pinot noir, refreshing, light and cool at heart, with cranberry, red cherry and strawberry fruit flavours elevated by notes of mace, musk and twiggy herbs. There's an earthen aspect here, too. This wine (and estate) shows real promise.

2023 This is a sinewy pinot noir with spice, twig and aromatic herb characters intricately threaded through strawberry and red cherry flavours. It's light, but it has good lines, good length and an attractive flavour profile

Mt. Coghill Vineyard Tootsie Chardonnay 2023
Ballarat

2023 TOOTSIE CHARDONNAY

This is a lean and long chardonnay with just enough flavour, and texture, to make a real go of it. It tastes of tinned pears and peaches with cream, with cedar and woodsmoke as artful contributors. It needs a year or two for the various components to integrate fully, but in isolation, everything is in good order here.

BRONZE

2023 SIR REGINALD ROSE

This is a fresh racy rose with strawberry, raspberry and citrus characters running juicily throughout. There's almost a tonic like character here and there's definitely an edge to the acidity, but the rush of strawberry keeps everything positive. It's a rose for the lunch table and works well with food!
